

MEDIA ADVISORY FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Cara Becker
Spokesperson for Team Happy Foundation
Phone: (504) 315-5084
Email: cbecker2@Tulane.edu

YOUTH SAFETY FEST presented by TEAM HAPPY FOUNDATION

NEW ORLEANS, LA - The Team Happy Foundation, focused on educating New Orleans youth to become the next generation of first responders, is putting on Youth Safety Fest in order to help prepare local families for the upcoming hurricane season. The event will offer safety packets on individual and pet hurricane preparedness best practices - along with free giveaways including children's books, fire detectors and disaster kits. The event is free and open to the public.

WHO:

Team Happy Foundation (Free Safety Children's Books, Free Disaster Starter Kits)
New Orleans Fire Department (Fire Truck and Fire Safety Apparatus Demonstration)
LA – SPCA (Adopt Animals and Pet Hurricane Safety Tips)
Additional community groups will be present as well.

WHAT:

Youth Safety Fest: a hurricane education and preparedness event focused on youth.
Free hot dogs, snowballs and Water Slide for children age 8 to 12.
Free raffle items for High School seniors: two HP printers and one JVC Stereo System.

WHEN:

Sunday May 31, 2015; 12PM to 3:00 PM

WHERE:

Historic Lower 9 Ninth Ward
All Souls Community Center
5500 St Claude Avenue
New Orleans, Louisiana 70117

WEBSITE:

www.TeamHappy.org/Fest